2005 AAU Junior Olympic Games NATIONAL INDOOR SOCCER CHAMPIONSHIPS Qualifying Tournament

Winners of each Regional Qualifying Tournament receive invitation to the National Indoor Championships in New Orleans!

Indoor soccer is now an official sport of the AAU Junior Olympic Games!

Arena Sports indoor soccer centers, Salmon Creek Indoor Sports Arena, Snohomish Indoor Soccer Dome, Starfire Soccer, and Woodinville Indoor Soccer Center have all teamed with the AAU Junior Olympics and are the Pacific Northwest indoor soccer arenas hosting the tournaments.

For indoor soccer, the country is divided into eight (8) regions. The Northwest Region includes Alaska, Idaho, Montana, Oregon, Washington, and Wyoming. Winners will compete against the other regional winners for the National Title in the 2005 AAU Junior Olympics at Riverside Indoor Soccer Complex in New Orleans July 26—August 7, 2005, where players will compete alongside 15,000 other athletes in 22 different sports.

All AAU Junior Olympics participating athletes are also invited to participate in traditional Olympic ceremonies, including the CELEBRATION OF ATHLETES in the New Orleans Arena, Monday, August 1, 2005 at 7:30 p.m.

Northwest Regional Qualifying Tournaments: Cost is $175 per team. (Age is based on August 1, 2005)

U-8 to U-10 play 5 per side with GK; maximum roster size is 13

U-11 and up play 6 per side with GK; Maximum roster size is 18
