

Your Invitation To Participate

June 4, 2002

RE: AAU Pacific Northwest Championships, Monday, June 17, 2002
AAU Junior National Western Open Monday-Wednesday July 1, 2, 3, 2002

Fellow Golfers,

High School Seniors may participate in this event.

These tournaments are ran with the quality that our spokesperson, Jack Nicklaus, would demand. They are open to all golfers from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Alaska and the United States.

This is your invitation to the 2002 AAU Pacific Northwest Junior Golf Championships and/or the AAU Junior National Western Open. If you take advantage of this and other Junior Golf opportunities, you will become the golfer you want to be. Don't procrastinate. This is one of the few tournaments for 2001-2002, which all High School Seniors may participate.

The Amateur Athletic Union, the oldest Athletic Union in the United States is offering you a chance to continue your golf, Its' spokesperson Jack Nicklaus knows the value of playing golf year round. Many of you played in the rain, but come to Yakima's Apple Tree on June 17th and enjoy the real Sun of Eastern Washington. The Apple Tree Golf Course has been selected as one of the Top 10 Courses in the Northwest. Find out information on the course by going to www.appletreegolf.com Apple Tree is putting a lake in on the back side that will be ready for this tournament. It comes into play on 11, 12 and 14. Be ready.

We do different things that will make this event the best in the Pacific Northwest. One small thing is that we continue to post scores after the 4th, 9th, 12th, 15th and 18th holes, this is very informative for the athletes and parents.

Play is at different yardages based on age of the player.

Overall Placement Awards for the Top Six golfers in each division.

Medals are awarded to the Top Eight golfers from each association. Western Washington, Eastern Washington/Northern Idaho, Oregon are all different Associations.

Note: Deadline date for entry and entry fees.

Top Eight individuals in each division has the right to advance to the 2002 National Finals for

If you have any questions feel free to contact the AAU House at 509 453 2696 or check the web site at www.ieaa.org for addition information and updates. You can also email the tournament director at paul@yvn.com When calling the officer, Carrie or Kathy can provide you any information that is needed.

We will see you at the 2002 AAU Pacific Northwest Junior Golf Championship and or 2002 AAU Junior National Western Open.

Sincerely,

Paul R. Campbell, Tournament Chairman

Amateur Athletic Union

These are more than a Junior Tournament.

It is a chance to play the best golf course in Eastern Washington.

Where the Sun is always waiting for you.
